

Engineering Study Abroad Program at ENSEA Spring Semester 2008

ENSEA — Une Grande Ecole

- ◆ One of the top engineering universities in France
- ◆ Located in Cergy - a university town in the heart of Val d'Oise
- ◆ 30 minutes from Paris and close to the Palace of Versailles

The Program: French American Exchange Program (FAME)

- ◆ Open to juniors with majors in EE and CSE
- ◆ Courses taught in English by ENSEA professors — earn UB credit!
- ◆ French Language and Culture course

Student Life at ENSEA

- ◆ ENSEA student housing - suites with shared kitchens
- ◆ UB students matched with ENSEA student mentors
- ◆ 4 weeks of vacation time to travel and explore

Approximate dates: February 4 — June 13
For more information about ENSEA: www.ensea.fr

No prior knowledge of French required!

Financial Information

UB Tuition: $2175 resident
$5305 non-resident
Program fee: $600
Housing: $1750 (estimate)
Meals: $1500 (estimate)
Air travel: $1000 (estimate)
Passport: $85
Student visa: $130

Additional expenses: personal expenses (min. $500-$1000), health insurance, and UB comp. fees of $17.50 (college & transcript fees).

$$$ SEAS scholarships of $500 each $$$
if 10 or more students participate.

UB financial aid applies!

Application Timeline

1. Apply for passport TODAY!
- ↓
2. Apply to UB Study Abroad Programs
Deadline: October 1st
- ↓
3. Acceptance decision by early Nov.
- ↓
4. Apply for visa upon acceptance
- ↓
5. Deposit of $300 due by mid Nov.

For more information:

Study Abroad Programs
210 Talbert Hall
Tel: 716 645 3912
studyabroad@buffalo.edu
www.buffalo.edu/studyabroad